

NATIVE PLANT MAINTENANCE •

Free release assistance (cutting back encroaching plants) is available for your native riparian plants this Spring or Summer. Plant protection devices are also available, contact Gary at the SWC Office or crew@siuslaw.org for information on how to sign-up.

SIUSLAW WATERSHED CAMPS •

Introductory Camp: June 22 – 25,

Entering 4th-6th grades.

Intermediate Camp: July 7 – 10,

Entering 6th-8th grades.

Advanced Camp: July 13 – 17, Entering 8th-12th grades, with watershed education experience.

More information and applications available at www.siuslaw.org/camps.

SWC General Meetings

- Salmon Abundance and Diversity: Are we making progress?—Court Smith (OSU)
 - Tahkenitch Lake Coho and the Dam: A marriage made in heaven, hell, or somewhere else—Charley Dewberry (Gutenberg College)
 - SWC Updates
- 6:30-8:30pm, Wednesday, April 29, 2015
Bromley Room, Siuslaw Public Library
1460 9th St, Florence
- Looking Ahead: 5/27/15, 6:30pm, Walton, Barred Owl Removal Study Presentation—USFWS & USGS; SWC Programs

Siuslaw Watershed Council

Phone: 541-268-3044

Fax: 541-268-3045

watershed@siuslaw.org

www.siuslaw.org